- (1) Every person subject to the payment of the tax hereby imposed who has commenced his business prior to the full calendar year prior to the tax year shall compute his annual estimated gross volume of business upon the actual gross amount of business transacted by him during said immediately preceding calendar year.
- (2) Every person subject to the payment of the tax hereby imposed who has commenced or who commences his business before the beginning of the tax year but after the beginning of the full calendar year prior to the tax year, shall compute his estimated annual gross volume of business for the tax year upon the gross volume of business transacted by him during prior calendar year, taking the monthly average during said period and multiplying the same by twelve (12). In the event that he shall be in business fewer than 90 days in the calendar year, he shall be permitted to use sufficient days in calendar year in which the tax year begins to equal 90 successive days after commencement of business, to take a monthly average thereon and to multiply the average by twelve (12).

Every person subject to the payment of the tax hereby imposed who has commenced or commences his business subsequent to the beginning of the tax year if there shall be less than three (3) months from the commencement of his business to the end of the tax year, shall compute his annual gross volume of business upon the actual gross amount of business transacted by him during the tax year; if there shall be more than three (3) months from the commencement of his business to the end of the tax year, he shall compute his estimated gross volume of business for such tax year upon the gross volume of business transacted by him during the period from the commencement of his business to the end of the tax year, taking the monthly average during the first three (3) months of business and multiplying the same by the number of months from the commencement of business to the end of the tax year.

Every person subject to the payment of the tax hereby imposed who engages in a business temporary, seasonal or itinerant by nature shall compute his estimated gross amount of business to be transacted by him for the period said person engages in such temporary, seasonal or itinerant business within the City by a method to be determined by Business Tax Administrator.

PENALTIES OF 10% plus 1% per month will be charged on payments received after June 15 or 221 days of commencement of business.

If the total gross receipts reported on your Business Privilege Tax return is not the same as the total gross receipts reported on your Federal Income Tax return, attach an explanation of the difference to this return.

5* April 16 to June 15 or after 160 days of commencement of business.

6A* February 15 to April 15 or between 100 to 160 days of commencement of business.

6B & C* After June 15 or 221 days of commencement of business.

If you have moved your business from one municipality to another during the tax year, you may have incurred an additional tax liability to that municipality.

ITINERANT CONTRACTORS (JOB SITE BUSINESS):

If no work is performed during the tax year, please file a zero tax form for the year.

We will be happy to answer any questions you may have regarding the record keeping required, the tax calculation or the return itself either in person at the Tax Administration office, City Hall, or
